I TOLD MY STORY

KAMANYA STUART
I am 15 years old
MAKONGE PRIMARY SCHOOL

OKURUT AND THE CURSED GOLDEN TREASURE

Once upon a time, long, long, long, time ago in a village called Catelle, there lived a young boy called Okurut. Okurut was a stubborn and undisciplined, everyone in the village knew him.

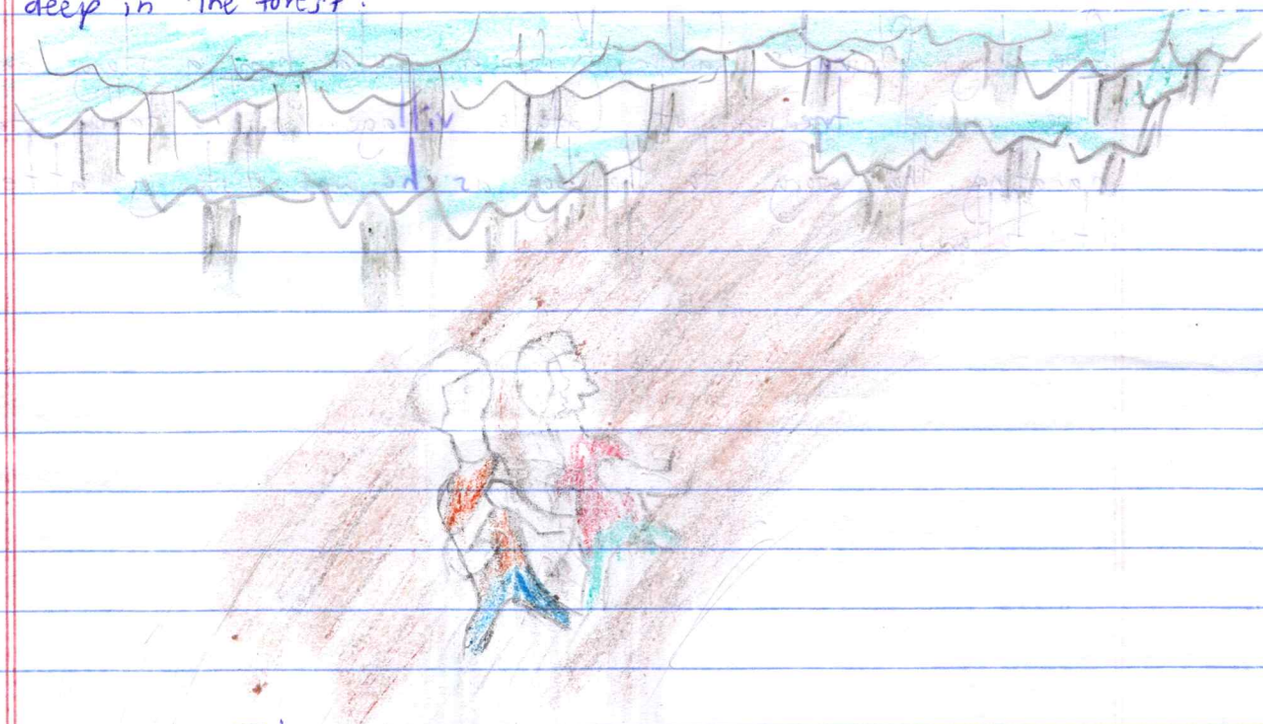
One day, Okurut's father, Kijza told him a story about the "The cursed treasure of Catelle village." The father started narating the story to the boy as he was listening attentively as it follows.

"Okurut's father narating the story"

One day, there were two best friends in a town called Kilille in Catelle village. They were best friends and they trusted each other a lot. One day one of the friends suggested that they should have a contest of a treasure hunt.

The hunt was to collect items from the forest. The forest was dangerous and dark inside. The items they were to collect were, a root from a biggest tree and a root from a tree in the middle of a forest.

The friends agreed to the items and went into the forest. The winner was to get a whole box full of golden treasures, real gold and diamonds. The friends left the village and entered deep in the forest.

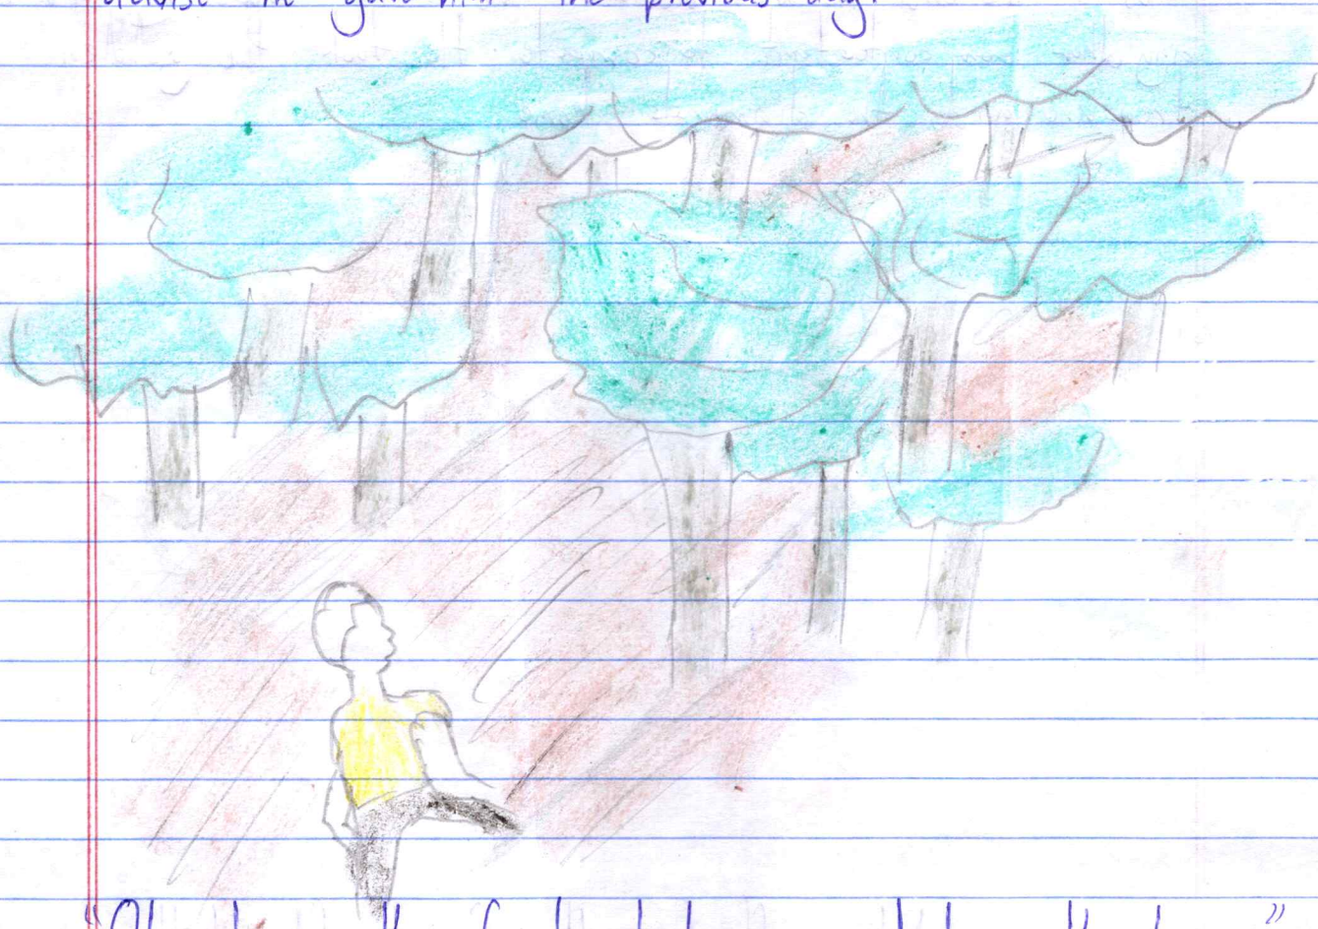


"The two friends going into the forest"

Once they entered the forest, they started looking, as they were looking, a friend called Ken found the first item and the other one kept on looking patiently. After a very long time, Bob, the other friend, got all the items in the forest.

The other friend felt at the bottom of his heart envious and hit him with a stick on the head and died instentily. The other friend buried him in the forest. After realising that he had killed his best friend, he took his items and ran out of the forest. Reaching the village he was asked where his friend was but he did not answer he instead said that he was killed by dangerous animals.

advise he gave him the previous day.

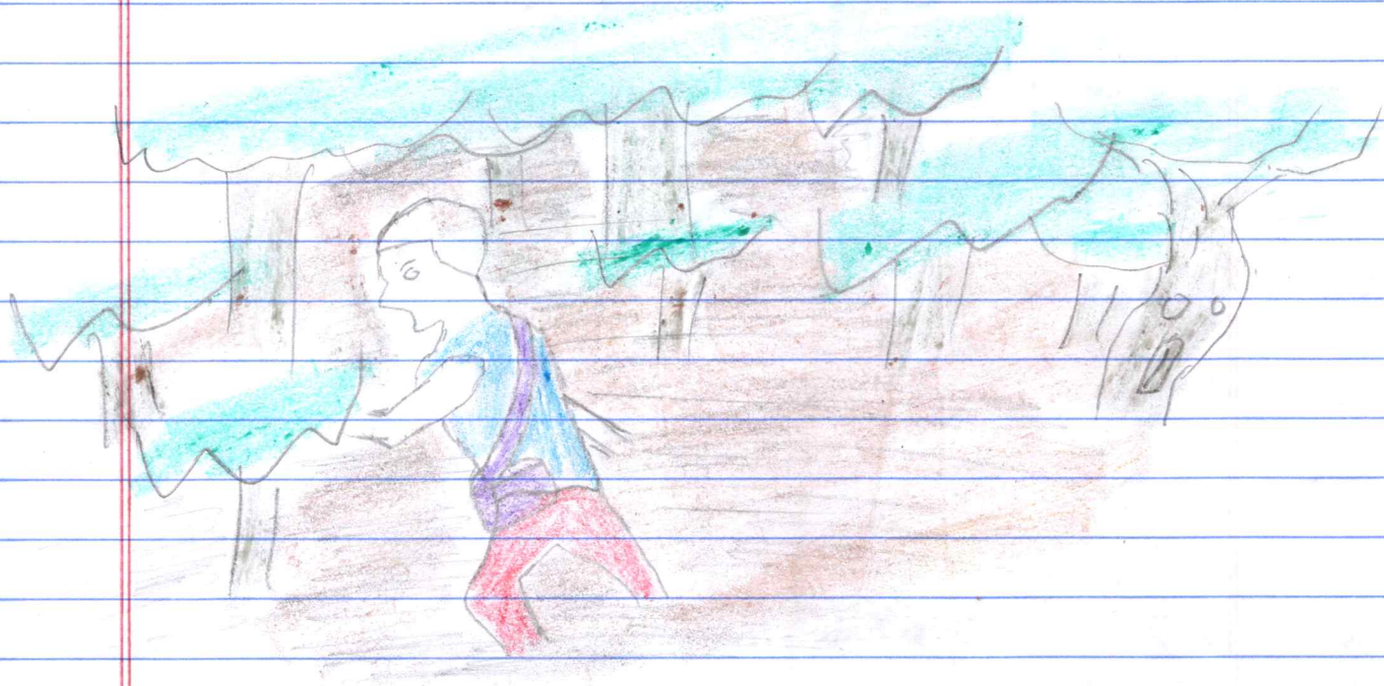


"Okurut in the forest looking around to see the treasure"

At first, he found a tree which led him to the place where the man was killed and buried (Ken). The boy went deep into the forest and found a tree, a treee had a riddle, the riddle was if someone gets it correct, he/she will get the treasure. The boy knocked twice "knock knock" and the tree said the riddle: I never was, but am always to be, no one ever saw me, and no ever will yet am the confidence of all who live and breathe, who am I?

The boy said you are a "question" as the first answer, the tree refused to open itself, as it refused the forest started shaking and Okurut feared the situation, he later on said that you are "tomorrow". Then the tree opened, as it opened the ghost of Ken stood up and chased Okurut. The ghost asked who has come to steal my treasure.

So, in the end he was declared the winner cause they did not see any other ~~com~~ contestant to compete. He took the golden treasure and the diamonds home

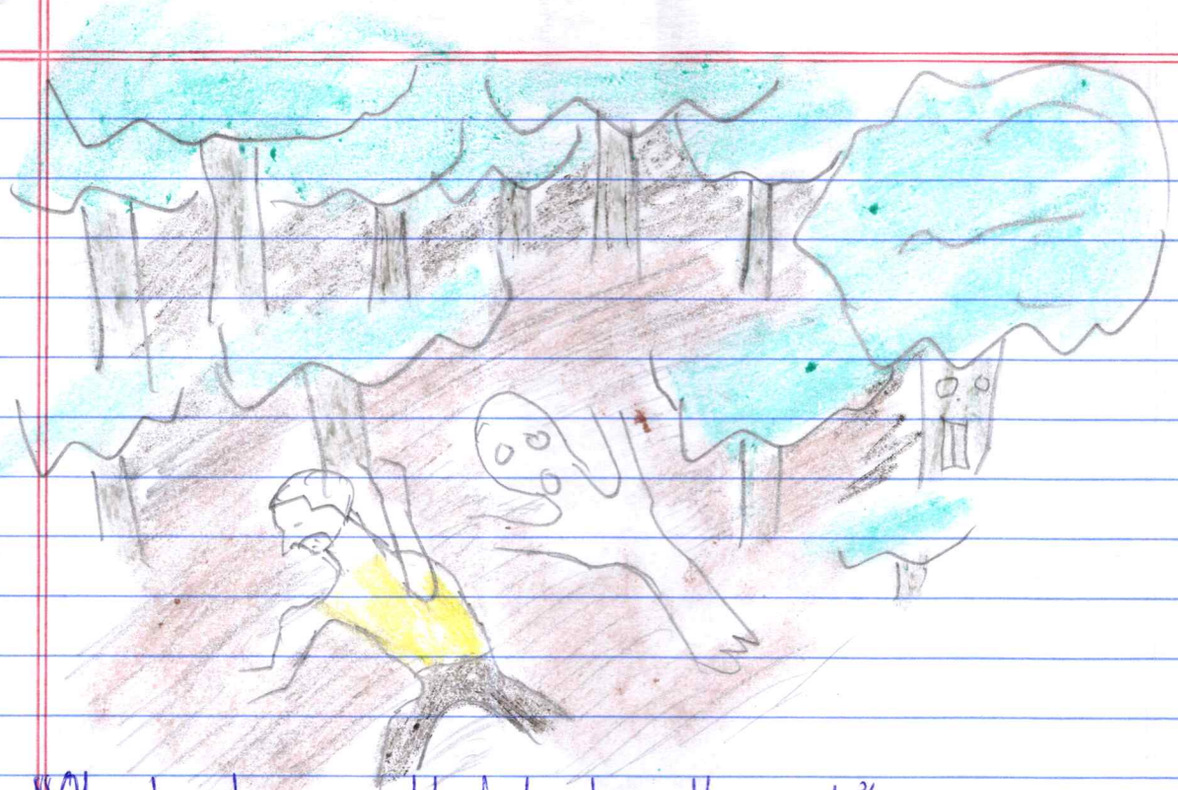


Ken taking off from the forest after killing his friend

After reaching home, he again felt bad for killing his best friend. He took the treasure and hid it in the darkest forest and cursed it so that no one could find it, and he left the forest, but as he was going, he was attacked by dangerous animals and ~~k~~killed him. The village members came looking and found his corpse and buried him.

After telling the boy the story, he was advised not to be greedy and stubborn cause nothing is too good for this world. After hearing the words, Okurut accepted to be honest and went to play but he was remembering not the promise he had made but the "treasure".

He wok up one day and left the village to go and look for the treasure. He entered the forest to seek and find the treasure. He entered the forest, the forest was dark and filled with fog only, nothing to see or feel. He looked and looked not remembering his father.



"Okurut being attacked by the goat."

After a few months, Okurut's father came looking for him in the forest but they found nothing. There was nothing to save. But it was very simple, if Okurut had followed the father's advise, he wouldn't have got into all that trouble. So Okurut acted as an example to the rest of the children in the village. They all started behaving well to their parents and not being stubborn to any one ever again.